13th March 2017

Dear Mrs Katalin Urbán

We hereby confirm that IFIS (International Food Information Service) is the publisher and owner of the FSTA[®] database. In addition, we can confirm that EBSCO is the only provider of the FSTA[®] database on the EBSCOhost platform. Therefore EBSCO is authorised to coordinate the sale of the FSTA[®] database to all institutions coordinated by the EISZ Office on behalf of the Library and Information Center of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences.

Ebsco is legally entitled and technically and financially qualified to provide offers based on the requirements to Hungarian institutions for 2017 requested by the EISZ Office.

Yours sincerely,

René Schölzel
Head of Sales and Marketing
